

Unique Palm Oil Plantations investment opportunity within a developing country. With a proven and experienced world-class management team.

Food and Edible Oils in Guinea, West Africa

- 100,000+ ha concession in Guinea with over 5,000 ha in operation and additional 95,000 ha available for planting
- African Palm Oil originated in Guinea and was given its name Elaeis Guineensis.
- Concession Area has good soil, sandy loam with deep top soil.
- Soil is of 1st and 2nd class with the possibility of 28 tonnes during its prime.
- Opportunity to grow at lower capex than competitors and fully financed from existing cash-flows

Proven, Experienced World-Class Management Team

- Over 100 years of agricultural business and operational experience globally.
- Focus on local management and community development.
- Considerable experience with large agri-businesses in Guinea.
- Successful track record of plantation management already throughout Guinea.

Favorable Global Palm Oil Fundamentals

- Domestic needs in Guinea, West Africa exceed production capacity.
- Population and income growth in emerging economies increasing demand.
- Government incentives / mandates and rising crude oil prices increasing economic viability of bio-fuels

Potential for Considerable Upside from Arable Land Farming Operations in Guinea

- Possibility of setting up a jetty for CPO and Kernel transportation.
- Year round growing season – continual harvests
- Peak Palm Oil PLC has already assembled approximately 2,000 ha of extremely high quality farmland with excellent access to infrastructure
- Peak Palm Oil PLC has the potential to expand their projects regionally and help in the building of the infrastructure to support such operations.